Your guests are essential in making your big day fabulous and fun. So why not give them something they can treasure forever?

Photobooth is a magical box which captures the behind-the-scenes moments of your wedding. It allows your guests to express themselves, providing you with fun and personal photos that capture the unique characters of your fantastic friends.

Photobooth.ie is the brainchild of Eamonn and Anna Grant, who thought it was about time that brides and grooms in Ireland got a piece of photobooth action having seen similar booths used for events abroad.

Photobooth takes a series of four photos, either in colour or in black and white, which can be branded with any caption you wish. Immediately after they are taken, the photos are printed and can be given to guests to take home. They're also digitally stored by the booth and provided to you in an online gallery and also on a CD, so you keep all the weird and wild photos taken by your guests throughout the night!

Anna and Eamonn Grant decided to take the concept for a test drive at their own wedding in June, and boy did it go down a storm. "I was amazed," Anna laughs, "when I got to the reception my guests were already queuing up outside the booth!" They both agreed that Photobooth was essential in capturing the mood and entertainment of their day. "It's also an alternative to wedding favours," says Anna, "it's so hard to find something suitable for every one of your guests, with the Photobooth they have something that will remind them of how much fun they had at your wedding. My friends all have the photos on the mantel-pieces in their houses, it's really nice to see how much they appreciated it."

While the standard wedding photo album is a beautiful reminder of your perfect day, it can lack the atmosphere and uniqueness of your personal wedding party. Photobooth is about capturing great moments the way nothing else can.

In addition to the basic package photobooth can also provide; Photobooth 'Boothys' to assist your guests with the booth, a CD/DVD of all your PhotoBooth images, a hardback photo album with your favourite images from the night, a slideshow of live projected images as they are taken at your reception and much more.

So, if you fancy something a bit different and a lot of fun, why not contact photobooth's team of enthusiastic Boothys to see what they can do for you?
